INTEND TO WED

Roy E. Fankbender, 26, of the Brighton hotel and Elizabeth E. Stern, 19, of 2073 1/2 Carson st. Mevin L. Miller, 22, of Los Angeles and Mary Ellen Sinden, 24, of 1412 Manuel ave. William L. Ritchie, 20, of 1610 Beech st. and Thelma E. Thompson, 20, of 21800 South Moneta ave., Torrance.

Mrs. Maude Hale, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Barbara Emerson was bridesmaid. Little Joyce Hanne-man, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. Alfred J. Bunje, brother of the groom was best man, while Harold Hale and Ralph B. Bunje ushered.

The bride, lovely in a satin and tulle gown with fingertip veil, carried a white prayer book with a single white camellia and freesias. Preceding the ceremony Miss Jane Camp, accompanied by Miss Marjorie King, sang. A reception for the families of the principals was held at the Gardena home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hale.

The bridegroom is a former Torrance high school student and attended University of California at Berkeley. He is now employed at National Supply Company. The bride is a Gardena high graduate and attended Los Angeles City college.

Following a honeymoon at Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Bunje will be at home at Andrew ave. and 218th st.

Silver Tea by St. Cecilia's Guild Wednesday, Mar. 12

A highlight in next week's social events will be the silver tea sponsored by St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church at Guild hall Wednesday afternoon, March 25, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Rosemary DeCamp Shidler, as guest speaker, will give highlights of her recent trip to Mexico. Mmes. Paul Moore Wheeler and Louis J. Deininger will serve on the hostess committee.

J. D'S PLAN MANY ACTIVITIES

At the regular Job's Daughters meeting held at C. E. Guild hall Tuesday evening plans were made to hold a series of dances on alternate Friday evenings at Woman's clubhouse beginning tomorrow evening, March 27. Job's Daughters, De Molays and their friends will attend.

The dancing party held recently at Rolling Hills Towne House was reported a social and financial success, according to Doris Armitage, reporter.

The girls will sell doughnuts Saturday morning at the entrance to Levy's store.

Margaret Mort will be hostess to the group at her home this evening.

HOUSEWARMING PARTY HELD FOR PAUL JONES

Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Jones were the surprised honorees at a housewarming party given Saturday evening at their new home, 1916 Andrew ave. Games furnished diversion following the presentation of a handsome gift from the group. Buffet refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Those present were Messrs. and Mmes. C. Boyd Thompson, D. A. Polhemus, Oscar Olson, H. R. Blanchard, John Robinson, John Cox and John Hooper.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS AT WILLET HOME

Mrs. O. B. Willett entertained members of her bridge club at dinner and cards Friday evening. A St. Patrick's color arrangement was used, and baby snapdragons created a pleasing contrast. Mrs. Bessie Myers and Mrs. Cleora Stanger were high score holders.

Sugar is the most important export and money crop of the Philippine Islands.

Noted Young Harpist to Appear With S. P. Symphony

Featuring Gail Laughton, prominent young harpist, as soloist, the second concert of the San Pedro Civic Symphony orchestra, directed by Robert Resta, will be presented Friday night, March 20, at the San Pedro high school auditorium. Laughton, who is regarded as one of the nation's most promising harp players, will offer Has-salman's "The Brook," Bach's "Largo," DeBussey's familiar "Clair de Lune" and Saizedo's "Song in the Night."

Young Laughton began his career as a boy wonder in Tulsa, Okla. His first instrument was a violin, on which he was playing solos at the very tender age of four. He represented Oklahoma on a patriotic tour with his family to Cuba and Panama when he was seven and gave a command performance for Henry Ford the following year. It was the same year that he switched from the violin to the harp to start a career that's bringing him fame today. At 16, he joined the Oklahoma City Symphony orchestra as the youngest harpist in the world.

Local members of the San Pedro Symphony are Doris Worrell, Walter Marek and Richard Honrath, violinists.
